Prodigy is an all purpose windsurfing board, is short, wide, and floaty. It's a very easy board for beginners to learn on. It's also a fun board to race, and it has performance potential for experts.

The Prodigy has a centerboard, which means that in light winds you sail upwind with easy and cruise your area waters. In higher wind, the Prodigy planes up easily, with the centerboard up it sails up wind like a Formula, it's very fast on reaches, and remains easy to control when over-powered. Since it was released in 2001, the Prodigy has become the top selling sailboard in the US. It's a very forgiving board, easy to tack and carves a smooth jibe.

Kids excel on the Prodigy using 1.7 to 4.0 sails
The Prodigy Comp rig the best non-planning 8.5 availablr today. When the wind picks up it can be depowered to handle winds well over 20 mph.
